

Hampshire High School Striving for Excellence

Travis Delaplain, President & CEO of FNB, presented Gabrielle Hersey with this year's Striving for Excellence Award.

In order to be eligible for this award, students must maintain a high academic standing, be highly motivated, have a positive attitude toward school and life in general, be well-rounded in his/her activities, as well as be goal-oriented and have a clear outlook on the future.

Gabrielle's community involvement includes volunteering with Bottle Caps for Dialysis and Hampshire County Park clean-up efforts.

A few of her extra curricular activities include president of the National Technical Honors Society, an active member of RAZE, a member of the WV Honors Academy, and WV Girl's State. She also holds certification in law enforcement.

Mr. Delaplain presented Gabrielle with a dorm room clock and a Kindle Fire HD to help her as she attends Shepherd University this fall.

FNB is proud to continue to sponsor this prestigious award--a tradition started in the late 1980s by past President & CEO, Walter H. Layman.
